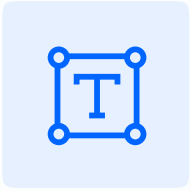
This feature is loved by lawyers drafting contracts, especially when trying to track any changes made in amounts, text etc. from the previous versions. We all know how many versions become the 'final one', this feature helps you keep track of changes, even if you lose track of the version.

Share & Export

Mike DocCompare allows you to share analysis with anyone (even those without credentials) directly from the dashboard.



Formatting Changes

Yes, even formatting changes like - bold, paragraph, bullet, numbering - any and every formatting style change is flagged by Mike DocCompare.

Headings

This unique feature allows users to easily check for any deletion, modification or insertion in any heading or sub-heading of the entire document. It also summarises the list of headlines and sub-headings in the document enabling easy navigation to go to a particular heading or sub-heading and allowing a keyword-specific search and tracking any changes made to them.
